Whitehall, August 7.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Ive's, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Ive's, in the County of Cornwall, do beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation, which we think is wisely calculated to disappoint the malicious Attempts of the Enemies of our happy Constitution.

We cannot observe, without Detestation, the Designs of those evil-minded Persons who have, by the industrious Circulation of delusive and seditious Writings, endeavoured to excite Murmurs and Discontents amongst the People of this Kingdom, and to stir up a pernicious Spirit of wild and extravagant Innovation.

Sensible of the Happiness we derive from your Majesty's just and mild Government, and convinced that the Peace and Prosperity of this Kingdom must depend upon Obedience to the Laws and a due Subordination amongst the various Orders of the Community, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are sincerely attached to your Royal Person, and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, discountenance all Attempts to establish Principles incompatible with our present excellent Constitution, as well as suppress all Riots and Tumults.

[Transmitted by William Praed, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of your antient Borough of Stockbridge, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to express our unalienable Attachment to your Majesty as the best of Kings, our sincere Affection for your Person and Family, and our fixed and unalterable Resolution to support the happy Constitution of your Kingdom, as settled at the Glorious Revolution, and improved under the Auspices of your Majesty and your most illustrious Ancestors.

We beg Leave also to offer your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your late most gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications, and for preventing Riots and Tumults, which have of late been so industriously promoted by factious and designing Men; and to assure your Majesty, that we trust the Zeal and Unanimity of your faithful Subjects will most effectually prevent any Interruption of the Public Tranquillity, which your People have so long and so happily experienced under your Majesty's wise and prudent Administration, in which we have, with the highest Satisfaction, observed the soundest Policy pursued, and every Department of the executive Power filled by Men distinguished by their public public Virtues, and eminent for their profound Judgment and Abilities, and who, under your Majesty's paternal Care, invariably promote the Peace, Welfare, and Prosperity of a great, happy, and free People.

[Transmitted by John Cator, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.
